Get involved in Mitte...

The district Office for Citizen Participation is your contact for all matters relating to citizen participation.

We provide advice and support if you are networking in your neighbourhood, want to suggest a participation, or have questions regarding citizen participation in the Berlin-Mitte district.

Our project list also ensures that citizens are informed of any planned projects in good time and are able to get involved if desired.

Our community Guidelines for Citizen Participation form a reliable basis for collaboration between politicians, authorities and citizens. There are already a number of ways to become actively involved in district decisions.
